

MiDentalCare Limited — Creditors' Meeting

Friday 26 June 2026 | 10:30am | Plaza Hotel, Tallaght, Dublin 24

Confidential — for John Webb O'Rourke only

PART 1 — DIRECTOR'S STATEMENT

Read this aloud at the start of the meeting. Keep it short. Do not embellish.

Good morning. My name is John Webb O'Rourke. I am the sole director of MiDentalCare Limited and I am chairing this meeting in that capacity.

I want to thank those of you who have attended today.

MiDentalCare Limited was incorporated to operate a dental practice. The company traded for a period but was not able to achieve the commercial viability required to sustain operations. The anticipated funding and operating arrangements that were put in place at the outset did not materialise as expected, and the company ceased trading as a result.

Having taken advice, the directors — and I as sole remaining director — concluded that a Creditors' Voluntary Liquidation under the Companies Act 2014 was the appropriate course of action. This process is designed to ensure that the company's affairs are wound up in an orderly and transparent manner, with the interests of creditors properly protected.

A Statement of Affairs has been prepared and is available for inspection today. It sets out the assets and liabilities of the company as best they can be determined at this time.

I propose Michael Butler of Butler and Co. as Liquidator of MiDentalCare Limited. He has the experience and independence to carry out this role properly.

I am available to answer any questions that creditors may have and I will do my best to assist.

I now invite Michael Butler to address the meeting.

PART 2 — HOW TO CONDUCT YOURSELF

Before you go in

Arrive ten minutes early. Shane is with you — he is support, not a principal. Bring this statement, the Statement of Affairs, and a pen. You are the sole director. You chair. You are not on trial.

Your posture for the morning

Formal, calm, cooperative. You are fulfilling a legal obligation and doing it properly. This is a procedural meeting, not a courtroom.

What to say and what not to say

Say: factual, brief answers about the company's trading history, assets, employees, and cessation.

Do not say: anything about personal financial commitments, your own position, or what you will or will not pay personally. That is not the business of this meeting.

If asked about fees or personal liability: "That is a matter between the parties and is not within the scope of this meeting. The liquidator's appointment and the company's affairs are what we are here to deal with."

If Llewellyn Farquharson or Sremium raise fee demands: do not engage. Acknowledge you heard them. Direct everything to Michael Butler. Do not argue. Do not apologise. Do not commit.

The resolutions you will sign

1. A resolution placing the company into voluntary liquidation.
2. A resolution appointing Michael Butler as liquidator.

You sign both. This is your obligation as director and you are completing it properly.

After the meeting

You have fulfilled your obligations as director. Thank Michael Butler, leave with Shane, and proceed.
